

MOREMEN FAMILY REUNION

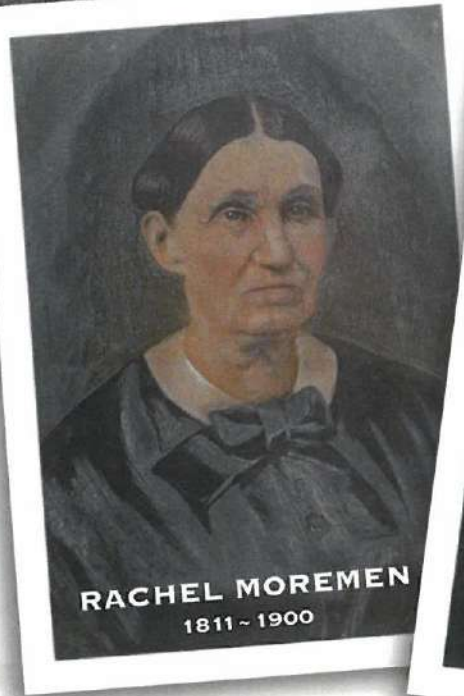

Moremen family members assembled for a photograph in front of the historic house on September 7, 2019. It was the first reunion the family had held in almost 25 years. One attendee traveled from Scotland to be here for the reunion. Nearly 100 people attended.

Photo from the last family reunion held at Riverside before the historic house was restored and opened to the public (circa 1990).

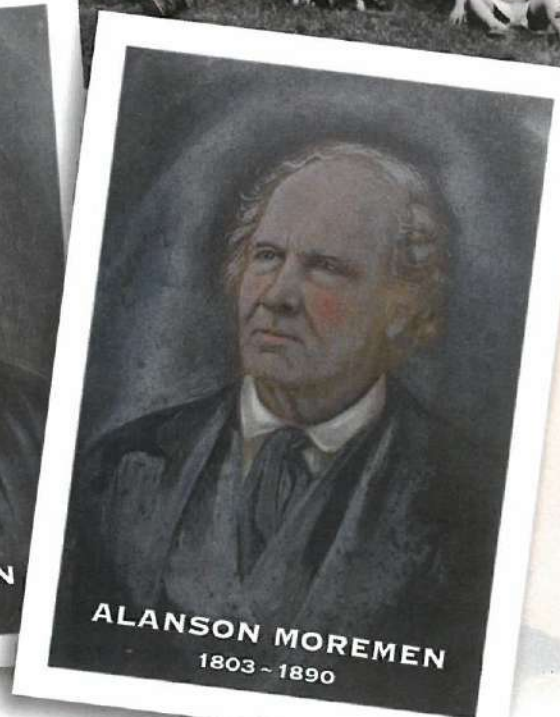

NEW DISCOVERIES (FOR US)

We became aware of two images of Alanson and Rachel Moremen (the first generation of the Moremen family to live in the Farnsley-Moremen House) at the recent family reunion at Riverside. These colorized (over painted) tintypes may be the earliest images of the couple.

RIVERSIDE KITCHEN HAS A NEW ROOF!

In July, eleven volunteers from eight different states descended upon Riverside for a two-week period. From July 15-26, volunteers replaced the roof on our detached kitchen and did some other repairs to the building. Two staff from the organization HistoriCorps oversaw the volunteer crew. The volunteers camped on site with special permission. HistoriCorps calculated that the volunteers put in 552 hours on this project, including their travel time. We are so grateful for their time and labor. The kitchen looks beautiful—and we made some new friends in the process. What a great experience!

RECENT ARCHAEOLOGY FIND

During a recent "Building Blocks of History" field trip, students uncovered this prehistoric Native American farming tool. This early hoe is a powerful reminder that humans were active here at Riverside for hundreds of years before the Farnsley-Moremén House was built in 1837.

CULTURAL PASS

Riverside has participated in Louisville's Summer Cultural Pass program since it began a few years ago. Children can pick up a pass at any Louisville Free Public Library and visit a number of cultural attractions for FREE one time over the summer. Riverside nearly doubled its Cultural Pass numbers over last summer. All totaled, Riverside redeemed 551 children's passes this summer on Tuesdays and Thursdays (when we honored the pass). These children were accompanied by 284 adults. This number represents an 84% increase over our Cultural Pass numbers last summer.
